President's Message

It is an honor to welcome you to Copiah-Lincoln Community College.

Co-Lin has a great tradition of academic and athletic success. The work and determination of our student athletes have reflected positively on our institution in the past and I am confident the tradition of outstanding achievement will continue with our athletes of today.

In recent years our athletic teams have won state and regional championships and participated in NJCAA National Tournaments. This year was no exception as our coaches and student-athletes were either state champions or runners-up in five of our 10 varsity sports.

Coach Allen Kent and the Lady Wolves Softball Team won their second straight MACJC State Championship, Coach Ronny Ross and the Wolfpack Golf Team won the college's first ever MACJC Division II Golf Championship and Coach Mike McIntyre and the Wolfpack Tennis Team were the Men's Co-Champions.

In the last three years, the Wolfpack Football Team won the Sea Island Golden Isles Bowl and finished ranked No. 6 in the Nation (2006), and the Lady Wolves Basketball Team won the NJCAA Region 23 Basketball Tournament and finished sixth in the NJCAA Division I National Tournament (2007); and the Lady Wolves Softball Team has made two trips to the NJCAA Division II National Tournament coming in third (2006) and runners-up in 2008.

Since 2000, Co-Lin has produced 23 NJCAA All-Americans in baseball, softball, basketball, golf, and football.

We are just as proud of the academic accomplishments of our students. The Men's Tennis Team was named the No. 2 NJCAA Academic Team of the Year with a 3.36 grade point average. Coach Mike McIntyre's teams have finished in the top three for the past seven years. Our women's tennis was the No. 5 NJCAA Academic Team of the Year with a 3.51 grade point average. The baseball, women's soccer and softball teams are also consistently ranked in the Academic Team of the Year polls.

Five student-athletes were named NJCAA Distinguished Academic All-Americans in 2009 and four were named NJCAA Academic All-Americans. Since 2005, Co-Lin has produced 36 NJCAA Distinguished Academic All-Americans and 38 Academic All-Americans.

We have also updated our athletic facilities. This year the outfield fence at the baseball field was replaced and lights were installed at the softball and soccer fields.

I am also proud of the dedication of our coaches. They work tirelessly throughout the year with resources that are very limited compared to other colleges. Nevertheless, they have developed programs that are competitive in every sport. Our coaches also are committed to helping our student athletes achieve their personal, academic and career goals.

Finally, we welcome all teams, fans, coaches, and administrators to our campus. Please enjoy your stay and let us know if we can assist you in any way.

Gwyn Young
Athletic Director/
Women's Head
Basketball Coach

Serving the college as athletic director since 1989, Gwyn Young has been head coach of the Lady Wolves basketball team for 33 years. Since coming to Co-Lin, he has seen his team win title after title and has compiled a record of 717 wins and 220 losses to rank him as the NJCAA Second Winningest Active Coach in the nation and the Winningest Women's Coach in the Mississippi Association of Community/Junior Colleges.

Young has put the Lady Wolves on the map as one of the nation's premier women's basketball teams. Under Coach Young's direction, the Lady Wolves have accomplished numerous awards including 20 MACJC Regular Season First place finishes, 14 MACJC South Division Championships, 19 MACJC State Tournament Appearances, five MACJC State Championships (1993, 1997, 1999, 2002 and 2003) and been runner-up to the MACJC State Champions six times (1983, 1984, 1998, 2006, 2007 and 2009). The Lady Wolves have won five NJCAA Region 23 Championships (1989, 1993, 1997, 2002, and 2007), been runners-up to the NJCAA Region 23 Champions eight times (1990, 1996, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2004, 2006 and 2009), and made five NJCAA National Tournament appearances (1989, 1993, 1997, 2002, and 2007). Young's team finished sixth in the 2007 National Tournament, fourth in the 1989 National Tournament, and has been consistently ranked each year by the NJCAA polls.

Young has been honored as Region 23 Coach of the Year in 1989, 1993, 1997, 2002 and 2007 and MACJC and MAC Coach of the Year in 1993, 2001 and 2007. The Clarion-Ledger has also recognized him as Coach of the Year for Junior Colleges on numerous occasions.

A graduate of Copiah-Lincoln where he was a standout for the Wolves basketball team, Young was inducted into the college's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1997. After graduating from Co-Lin, he attended Mississippi College where he was team MVP and a team captain. Young received his bachelor's degree from Mississippi College and master's degree from the University of Southern Mississippi.

He is married to the former Velesta Smith. They have two grown children, Lane and Jessica, and three grandchildren, Justin, Mary Gwyn and Mailey Kate.

Duane Burt
Assistant Softball Coach

Duane Burt begins his third year as an assistant coach for the Lady Wolves softball team, and his fourth year as an instructor of biology and chemistry at Co-Lin.

He is a 1998 graduate of Co-Lin, where he was a member of the baseball team, president of the Eta Omega chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, and a Hall of Fame inductee.

Burt received his bachelor's degree in marine biology, with a minor in chemistry, from the University of Southern Mississippi in 2000. He acquired additional study in marine science at Cornell University. Upon graduating from Southern Miss, he accepted a job as Environmental Manager at a utility engineering and construction firm, which was contracted by AT&T. After two years of environmental work, Burt was emergency certified by the state of Mississippi to teach high school science for two years.

While at Bogue Chitto High School, he was head softball coach. During these two years, he accumulated two District 7-1A Championship titles, one undefeated season within Lincoln County rival teams, and advanced well into the state playoffs in 2002-2004.

When his emergency certification to teach and coach expired in 2004, Burt attended graduate school at the University of Mississippi, School of Pharmacy. In 2006, he received his master of science degree in marine pharmacognosy, or, drug discovery from marine plants and animals.

Burt began instructing science at Co-Lin in the fall of 2006 at the Simpson County Center, and transferred to the Wesson campus during the summer of 2007. He is a member of Calvary Baptist Church in Bogue Chitto, and is married to the former Amy L. Smith of Bogue Chitto.

They are the parents of one son, Brandon, and a daughter, Layla.

He spent three seasons at Western Carolina University overseeing the offensive line while working with the offensive line and tight ends. At WCU, O'Daniel coached offensive linemen Kevin McAlmont, Wendell Singletary, and Marcus Thomas, all who have signed NFL free agent contracts. In 2005, Linden Ryan and McAlmont received All-Southern Conference honors. The Catamount Offensive Line paved the way for 2006 All-Southern Conference running back Darius Fudge who was the sixth 1,000-yard rusher in WCU history. Fudge eclipsed the 1,000 yard mark versus the eventual National Champion Florida Gators at the Swamp.

Prior to WCU, O'Daniel spent the 2004 season in his second stint at the University of North Carolina, working with player development and recruiting. He spent the 2003 season at North Carolina Central University, where he coached the offensive line. Between his jobs in the state of North Carolina, O'Daniel served as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Texas (2001-02), where he earned his Master of Education in 2002. O'Daniel worked with the offensive line and tight ends with the Big XII South champion Longhorns. While at Texas, he worked with All-Americans Derrick Dockery (Washington Redskins) and Mike Williams and current NFL tight ends Bo Scaife (Tennessee Titans) and Davis Thomas (New England Patriots).

O'Daniel's first stint with the North Carolina Tar Heels came over three seasons (1998-2000), assisting the Tar Heel football program as an offensive graduate assistant (offensive line) and as assistant director of video operations.

He got his start in coaching as a student assistant at Florida State University where he was a fullback for the nationally-ranked Seminoles (1995-97). O'Daniel received his B.S. in biochemistry and his B.S. in chemistry at FSU in 1998. A native of Gulf Breeze, Florida., O'Daniel began his collegiate career at Louisiana State University (1993-94).

Cheerleading today is a unique combination of athleticism, entertainment and student leadership.

Cheerleading tryouts are held each April. Former Co-Lin cheerleaders practice with the new cheerleaders starting in early March so they can be prepared for tryouts. Starting in May the new squad travels all over the surrounding counties teaching private camps to junior high cheerleaders. This continues until the middle of July. Each camp lasts three to five days. The cheerleaders also hold Lil Wolf Cheer Camps for elememtary-age students during the year. Participants cheer during home football and basketball games.

Bailey Brister

Co-Lin cheerleaders practice at least three to four times a week starting in May and continuing until school begins in August.

Co-Lin's cheerleaders have attended UCA cheer camp at the University of Alabama the last eight years. They have won numerous awards and trophies year after year.

Cheering at Co-Lin is a year-round sport and requires hard work and dedication.

Former Co-Lin cheerleaders have gone on to cheer at NCAA Division I schools including the University of Mississippi, Mississippi State University, the University of Southern Mississippi, Southeastern Louisiana University, and Delta State University.

Twyana Britt Morse begins her 13th year as cheerleading sponsor.

BLUE WAVE SHOW BAND

Assistant Director of Bands

Blue Wave Show band has been plundered by the "Pirates of the Colin-bbean"

The voyage begins with the "Pirates of the Colin-bbean" in a swashbuckling voyage across the open seas in search of all the ill-gotten booty they can muster.

Soon, they will be somewhat subdued by Larry and his pals of Veggie-Tale fame as the "Pirates That Don't Do Anything." As they move across the sea, the drumline will then be featured in a rousing rendition of "What Do We Do With a Drunken Sailor."
Finally, when order is restored, no visit to the Caribbean could be complete without a touch of Jimmy Buffet.

As the pirates come back to reality, they begin to ponder their checkered pasts with "A Pirate Looks at 40."

But...beeeeware maties..... no one knows what lurks in Davie Jones' Locker???

With 11 returning lettermen on offense and 12 on defensive, the Wolfpack look to improve on last year's 4-5 record.

Head coach Glenn Davis, in his sixth season, said the success of the 2009 season depends on the leadership of the returning sophomores.

Offensively, Co-Lin will have to replace lineman Abre Leggins (University of Central Florida), wide receiver Jason Bruce (Troy University), and quarterback Micah Davis (Delta State University).

Anchoring the offensive line are sophomores Darion Smith of Brookhaven and Joe Collins of Madison. Also seeing playing time are sophomores Reed Maddox of Magee, and Patrick Wallace of Brookhaven.

Running back Twyon Lee of Magee returns along with receivers Mike Shaw of Magee and Carlton Ollie of Flora.

Taking the reigns of the offense will be freshman quarterback Percy Turner of Fayette.

Defensive backs Andrew Magee (6) and Lionel Stokes (11) go after the Pearl River fumble.

Expected to make an immediate impact are transfer wide receiver Delmon Robinson (Mississippi State University) and running back Justin Rogers (University of Nebraska).

The Wolfpack return three members in the defensive secondary including NJCAA Pre-Season Second Team All-American Dequan Menzie of Columbus, Ga. Also returning are veterans Charles Rancifer of Brookhaven, Lionel Stokes of Columbus and Menzie. They will be joined by Auburn University transfer Ryan Williams.

Lost to graduation are defensive back Andrew Magee (Oklahoma State University) and defensive lineman Nick Fairley (Auburn University).

Returning sophomores Ronny Magee of Mendenhall and Greg Norwood of Madison will anchor the linebackers corp.

Anchoring the corners on the defensive line are sophomores Ken Adams of Enterprise, Ala. , a converted tight end, and standout Josh Tillman of Meadville. Also expected to see plenty of playing time on the defensive line is University of Tennessee Donald Langley of Washington, D.C.

Handling the kicking duties is MACJC Second Team All-State selection Tyler Fitzgerald of Florence.

The powerful MACJC South Division appears to be strong again. The Wolfpack will face four nationally ranked teams this season.

Co-Lin with take on NJCAA Pre-Season First Team All-American quarterback Randall Mackey and his No. 6 ranked East Mississippi Lions in the home opener on Aug. 27.

They will travel to Ellisville in week three to face the No. 14 ranked Jones County Bobcats.

The Mississippi Gulf Coast Bulldogs look to avenge last year's loss when they host Co-Lin on Oct. 3. The Bulldogs are ranked No. 2 in the NJCAA Pre-Season Top 25 poll.

Co-Lin will host No. 11-ranked Pearl River on Saturday, Oct. 10 for homecoming.

New to the Wolfpack coaching staff is former defensive standout and SEC performer Jessie Bowman. Bowman will work with the defensive line this season.

Returning to Coach Davis' staff are veteran secondary coach Calvin Green, defensive coordinator Brett Shufelt, second year offensive line coach Drew O'Daniel, linebacker coach Clarence McDougal, and running backs coach Bill Hemingway.

The Wolfpack look to improve on their fifth place finish in the South Division under first year head coach Trey Woodham.

Lost to graduation were two-year starters Josh Dixon and Tyler Cherame, both William Carey University signees; inspirational leader Cass Sellers and speedster Nick James.

The Wolfpack return four sophomores who will provide leadership to a talented group of freshmen. Returning sophomores are Ross Smith, Joseph McKay, Eric Duarte and Tyler Green. Smith led the team in goals last season. Green, a defensive leader, was sidelined almost all of last season due to injury. Duarte and McKay are season veterans that will anchor the midfield this season.

Co-Lin's Eric Duarte battles for the ball.

A talented freshmen class includes midfielder/defender Zach Breland from Stone County, defender James Knight from Gautier high School, midfielder Chris Lowman from Brookhaven High School, defender Andrew Rushing from Loyd Star High School, forward Jake Errington of Brookhaven High School, and goalkeeper Andrew Sandoz from Warren Central High School.

Midfielder Keith Tardibuono, a transfer from NAIA Springhill College, is expected to provide an immediate impact and leadership.

Looking at the tough South Division, Southwest Mississippi returns a very solid team with a quality recruiting class. They are expected to challenge perennial powerhouse Mississippi Gulf Coast. Jones County and Pearl River are also expected to push for a playoff spot. Both schools have solid recruiting districts and quality returning sophomores.

Woodham brings a wealth of experience as a player for Centenary College and coach at the premiere level for the Shreveport Futbol Club, head women's coach for Captain Shreve High School and Loyola College Prep.

He was named District Coach of the Year twice and City Coach of the Year once.

He has most recently coached the Chicago Fire Juniors of Mississippi – winning the U11 Classic League State Championship.

Woodham will also serve as the assistant coach for the women's team.

Last year the Lady Wolves struggled through a rebuilding year under first year head coach Brian Moore. With some nagging injuries to underclassmen, Co-Lin managed to finish in fifth place in the South Division posting three wins on the season.

Lost to graduation were two-year starters Montana Hahn, Jackie Farmer, Savannah Peebles and inspirational leader and team captain CaryAnne Rake.

The Lady Wolves are looking for leadership and solid contributions from returning sophomores Lindsey Duckworth, Whitney Reynolds, Julie McKay, Keri "Faith" Johns, Jaime Benge, Shannon Thompson and Jennifer Thornton.

Coach Moore is looking for the incoming freshmen to step in and provide quality competition at multiple positions. Incoming freshmen include Britney Cannon, Dallas Jackson and Jessica Haynes, all from Wesson High School. Also expected to contribute immediately are North Pike defenders Samantha Roberts and Ariel Patterson, midfielder/forward Damien Cliburn from Lawrence County High School, midfielder/defender Heather Phillips from Brookhaven Academy, midfielder Sabrina Whatley from Richland High School, and midfielder/defender Haley Vaughn from Cathedral High School in Natchez.

Julie McKay makes the kick.

Two familiar names on the Co-Lin roster are Peebles and Hahn, younger sisters of former two-year starters for the Lady Wolves. Ena Peebles and Marlee Hahn are both offensive threats that will step in right away to put pressure on opposing defenses.

The South Division looks to be strong this season with perennial powerhouse Mississippi Gulf Coast and Jones County looking to be the top contenders.

Assisting Coach Moore with the Lady Wolves is first year men's head coach Trey Woodham.

For the fourth time in the last five seasons, the Wolves finished runner-up in the MACJC State Tournament. The Wolves (15-14) also qualified for the NJCAA Region 23 Tournament.

The Wolves were led in 2008-2009 by Southeastern Louisiana signee and NJCAA All-American Trent Hutchin. Hutchin averaged 21 points per game and led the nation by shooting 95 percent from the free throw line. He was also named NJCAA First Team All-Region 23 and MACJC First Team All-State.

Rob Wallace, a California junior college transfer, signed with Belhaven College after averaging 19 points per game. Wallace was named MACJC Second Team All-State.

Also lost to graduation were starters Lawanski Newsome, Gerald Bass, and Torrian Sanders. The 2008-2009 Wolves led the nation in free throw shooting by finishing an NJCAA best 75 percent for the season.

Co-Lin's Dewayne Brown blocks the shot.

The Wolves return only two sophomores off of the 2008-2009 team. Dwayne Brown, a 6'8" center from Destrehan High School (New Orleans), saw starting action for the Wolves. Brown averaged 4 points and 4 rebounds per game. Josh Hart, a 6'5" forward from Wesson Attendance Center, is the only other returning player for the Wolves. Two transfers are expected to come in and make an immediate impact. Michael Campbell, a 6'5" forward from Memphis, played last season at Bevill State (AL). Campbell averaged 10 points and 5 rebounds in his freshman campaign. DeMorris Summers comes to Co-Lin after competing during the 2007-2008 season for the Tougaloo College Bulldogs. Summers, a 6-2 guard from Provine High School (Jackson), averaged 12 points per game in one semester of action.

A talented group of freshman will all be fighting for minutes with only four sophomores on the roster. New signees include Cory Catchings a 6'3" guard from Callaway High School (Jackson); Anthony Evans a 6'0" guard from Greenville-Weston High School (Greenville); Glenn Ford a 5'9" guard from Greenville-Weston High School (Greenville); Josh Hood a 5'10" guard from Wesson Attendance Center; Marcus Hooten a 6'2" guard from Provine High School (Jackson); Joshua Hollins a 6'5"forward from Crystal Springs High School; Jordan Smith a 6'5" forward from Provine High School (Jackson); Blaine Roberts a 6'3" guard from Brookhaven Academy and Earl Warren a 6'4" forward from Dutchtown High School (LA).

The Lady Wolves had a season to remember in 2008-2009. Winners of the South Division, runner-ups in the MACJC state championship, and runner-ups in the Region 23 tournament, the Lady Wolves (26-4) were ranked 9th in the last NJCAA national poll of the regular season. The Lady Wolves notched a historic victory when they beat Northeast in overtime in Boonville on Dec. 13, 2008. The thrilling overtime 81-80 win was career victory number 700 for head coach Gwyn Young. Coach Young currently sits in second place in career victories among active women's basketball coach in the NJCAA. With the top three scorers from 2008-2009 returning and a talented group of freshmen signed, the Lady Wolves look to continue their tradition of excellence.

Shareka Hunt is surrounded by Jones defenders.

Leading the returning players is NJCAA All-America Rachel Vigers. Vigers of North Iberville High School (LA), averaged 13.7 points and 5.7 rebounds a game. Latoria Holder of Lumberton High School was second on the team with 13.2 points per game average. Holder led the team in steals by averaging 3.1 a game. Both Vigers and Holder were named NJCAA All-Region 23 and First Team MACJC All-State. Returning sophomore Shareka Hunt from Franklin County came off the bench as a freshman and averaged 10.4 points and 7 rebounds a game. Rokeiya Adams of Crystal Springs High School returns after averaging 2.9 points per game as a freshman. Other returnees include Nadia Collins of John Curtis High School in River Ridge (LA) and Fiere Brown of Lawrence County. Collins averaged 4.4 points per game and was second on the team in three-pointers with 27. Brown averaged 1.9 points per game.

The freshman class of signees includes Allison Boyd of Pelahatchie High School; Shakina Green of Crystal Springs High School; Alicia Kelly of Wingfield High School (Jackson); Ashley Morrison of Adams County Christian School (Natchez); Kristin Newsome of Forest Hill High School (Jackson); Cinnamon Riley of Alpha Christian School (Hattiesburg); Naketa Roberts of Capitol High School in Baton Rouge, LA and Brandi Simmons of Murrah High School (Jackson).

These incoming freshmen will have big shoes to fill in replacing a standout group of graduating sophomores. Lost to graduation are NJCAA Distinguished Academic All-American, MACJC All-Star, and Mississippi College signee TeAirra Wilbert, MACJC All-Star and Mississippi College signee Rhonda Dumas, MACJC All-Star and William Carey signee Yashunda Williams, NJCAA Distinguished Academic All-American Kimberlee Thomas, Shrica Ward, Mercedes Williams, and Shasta Porter.

For the second year in a row, the Wolfpack missed out on the playoffs by one game. They look to improve in 2010 after finishing last season with an overall record of 19-26 and a South Division record of 10-14.

This year's team will be as young as any team in the last 17 years. The key to the success in 2010 will be how the young players adjust. The entire pitching staff will be made up of players that have little or no experience at the college level.

Lost to graduation are All-State players pitcher Joseph Evans (First Team), first baseman and Texas State signee Cameron Logan (Second Team), centerfielder Jeff DeBlieux (Second Team), and right fielder and William Carey University signee Jared Rogers (Second Team). Also graduating were outfielder Mason Warren, infielder Bennett Wilson, and pitchers Christian Malbrough, Trent Hartzog, Patrick Shumaker, Ian Ferrell, and Mississippi College signee Brock Campbell.

Catcher Tyler Hue tags out the Southwest runner at ome.

Returning sophomores include catchers Tyler Hue and Ryne Tutor, Second Team All-State centerfielder/LHP Jeff DeBlieux, outfielder Kendall Logan, infielders Cable McMinn, Luke Brumfield and Matthew Freeman. Pitchers Jonathan Grace and Brandon Jones will miss the 2010 season due to injuries.

A large group of incoming freshmen include catcher Zach Williams (West Lincoln), catcher/RHP Daniel Jenkins (Cathedral), first baseman Derek Sanders (Simpson Academy), first baseman/RHP Conner Oakes (Lawrence County), shortstop Edmund Cheatham (Forest Hill), shortstop/second baseman Brett Rushing (West Lincoln), shortstop/third baseman Bud Britt (Brookhaven), third baseman/RHP Derek Bedwell (West Marion), and third baseman/RHP Preston Edwards (Cathedral).

Freshmen outfielders include Lee Mashburn (Simpson Academy), Seth Avants (Bogue Chitto), Patrick Ferguson (Clinton), Chris Fink (Wesson), Chris Jones (Mendenhall), Tyler Reeves (Lawrence County), and Jesse Shows (McLaurin)

New faces on the pitching staff include right hand pitchers Chris Jones (Mendenhall), Jesse Shows (McLaurin), Daniel Graham (West Marion), Marshun Hall (Moss Point), Andrew Lee (Northwest Rankin), Evan Smith (Loyd Star), Mitch Tidwell (Canton Academy), Drew Weaver (Loyd Star), Kent Williford (Madison Central), and left hand pitcher Ryan Kennedy (Enterprise). Redshirt left hand pitcher Ben McDowell will be available for duty this season.

This year marked the ninth time in 11 years that the Wolfpack have finished in the top 20 in the nation academically.

Coach Keith Case returns for his 18th season for the Wolfpack. Brian Nobile returns for his sixth season as assistant coach. Serving as a student assistant is John Floyd.

The Wolfpack will spend the six-week fall practice trying to find the right combination and chemistry to compete in the tough South Division in the spring. Co-Lin opens the 2010 season Feb. 12 on the road against the East Mississippi Lions. The home opener is scheduled for Feb. 16 against Baton Rouge.

The 2010 season brings another year of high expectations for the Lady Wolves. The 2009 squad won the difficult South Division title and their third MACJC State Tournament Championship in the last four years. Five starters were lost from the 2009 team that finished the season ranked No. 9 in the NJCAA National Polls. This marked seven straight years that the Lady Wolves were ranked in the NJCAA's Top 10.

Returning sophomores who made key contributions are NJCAA Second Team All-American center fielder Monea Cameron of Meadville, NJCAA All-Region shortstop Daniele Wilson of Destrehan, LA; MACJC Second Team All-State pitcher/second baseman Terri Hodges and MACJC Second Team All-State third baseman Holli Smith, both of Brookhaven.

Cameron set school records for homeruns (10) and runs scored (41). In addition, she led the team in batting average .412 and slugging percentage of .748. Wilson lead the team in RBIs with 49, while setting school records for doubles (16) and walks (29). Wilson carried a hefty .403 batting average, hitting 8 homeruns.

Sophomores who look to make contributions this year are catcher/first baseman Katie Stewart of Brookhaven and utility player Dee-Dee Walker of Lawrence County. These sophomores were instrumental in our success last season and look to continue to build on that success in 2010.

"We're looking forward to the upcoming season, we feel like we've put together a team that is capable of doing some really good things," said Lady Wolves head coach Allen Kent.

Kent is bringing in a talented group of freshmen. Three freshmen out-of-state players highlight the group, pitchers Bethany Pinkston of Brusly High School in Brusly, LA, and Debra Hamor of Little Cypress Mauriceville in Orange, TX, and catcher Lakin Lockhart of Live Oak High School in Denham Springs, LA. All three have extensive travel ball experience and come from very successful high school programs.

Local area freshmen competing for playing time include utility/pitcher Kelli Howard of Bogue Chitto, catcher/utility Haley Sones and infielder Brittany Beeson, both of Loyd Star, utility Erika Rutland of Enterprise and utility Casey Risher of Brookhaven High School. Rounding out the in-state crop is outfielder Kayla Coleman of East Rankin Academy.

"Competing in the MACJC South Division is a big challenge, with this season being no exception" said Kent. "Every team in the South Division will be improved this season. Our success brings out the best in other teams. Teams always seem to really get up for us and play their best games against us, so we can't afford to make any mistakes."

The sophomores return with a sense of confidence having won last year's MACJC State Tournament, but they are hungry for a return trip to the National Tournament. The Lady Wolves must succeed in division play, in the State Tournament and finish in the top two in the NJCAA Regional/District Tournament.

"I like our personnel, we have the best available players in our limited recruiting district," said Kent. "We need to stay healthy, play the type of ball we are capable of, catch a few breaks and hope for the best."

Duane Burt is entering his third season as assistant coach. Coach Burt brings enthusiasm and encouragement to the program. Longtime assistant Johnny Williams retired after the 2009 season, but plans to volunteer when he is available.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

After the tragic loss of No. 1 singles/doubles player Sarah Taylor in the fall, the Lady Wolves finished the 2009 season with strong a 7-7 record. Off the court, the Lady Wolves were the NJCAA's No. 5 Academic Team of the Year with a team GPA of 3.36 and Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) All-Academic Team.

Lost to graduation were Ashli Walker (No. 1 singles/doubles), Ashlee Richardson (NJCAA Distinguished Academic All-American), Adrienne Brown (NJCAA Academic All-American).

Richardson, Walker and Brown, along with freshman Mary Catherine McDonnieal were named to the ITA Academic Team.

The Lady Wolves will be led in 2010 by McDonnieal, the team's only sophomore.

Mary Catherine McDonnieal is the only returning sophomore in 2010.

Joining Co-Lin in 2010 are Katie Beth Case of Brookhaven Academy (MPSA State Champion No. 2 in 2008 and No. 1 Doubles in 2009), Nicole Magee of Simpson Academy (MPSA South State Runner-Up at mixed doubles and Team Most Valuable Player) and Alex Lea of Brookhaven High School (MPSA State Champion, four-year MHSAA State Tournament qualifier and Team Most Valuable Player).

"We're very inexperienced at the collegiate level," said Lady Wolves head coach Holli Pepper. "We've have several players that have been succesful in doubles at the high school ranks."

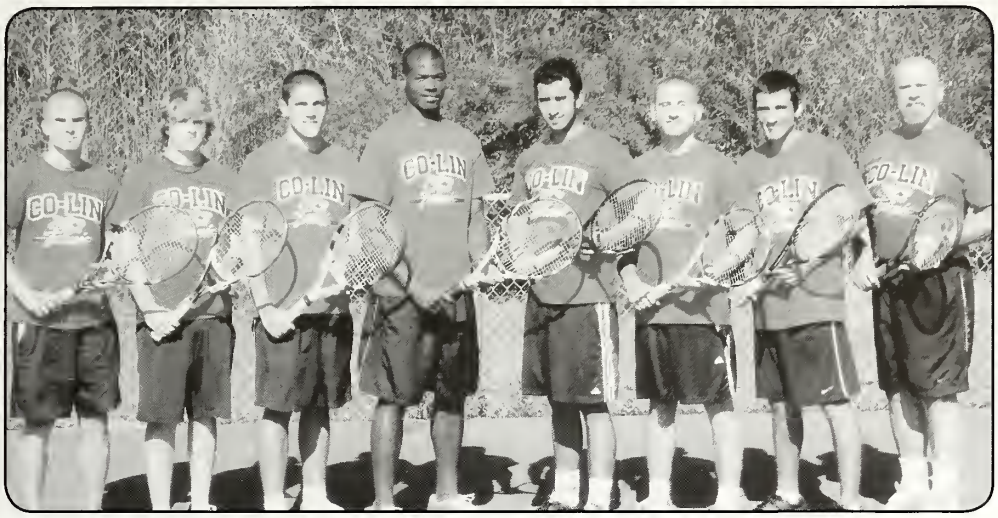
The Lady Wolves will have limited experience in singles, but will work hard in the fall in preparation for the spring.

Peppper returns for her fifth season as head coach. She was a member of the 2002 MACJC State Championship Team and NJCAA Region 23 Championship Team while at Co-Lin. In 2002, Pepper won the MACJC State Champion in No. 1 doubles and No. 2 singles.

In 2001, Pepper won the state championship in No. 4 singles and No. 2 doubles. She was a NJCAA Distinguished Academic All-American and inducted into Co-Lin's Hall of Fame.

While at Mississippi College, Pepper played No. 2 doubles and No. 4 singles and was the team captain. She received the Choctaw Award and was named to the American Southwest Conference All-East First Team, All-ASC Tournament First Team, Newcomer of the Year, All-ASC Tournament First Team, Newcomer of the Year, ASC Eastern Player of the Year ASC Eastern Player of the Week.

MEN'S TENNIS



The men's tennis team tied with nationally ranked Hinds for the MACJC State Team Championship. The Wolfpack came home with two individual titles after reaching five of the nine tournament finals. The Wolfpack finished the season with a 14-3 record. This was the sixth state championship for head coach Mike McIntyre.

"This team will go down in the book as one of my best teams ever," said McIntyre. "It's really hard to believe the turn-around over the last year. Our 2008 team started off the season last spring with an 0-6 record and eventually finished the season 8-6."

Bringing home championships were the No. 2 doubles team of Guillermo Chaves of Bogata, Columbia and Reilly Miller of Brookhaven. They finished the season with a 16-1 record.

Justin Hewitt of Monticello captured the No. 5 singles title. He finished the season with 14-2 record.

"We had to hold our breath all through the season since we had only six regular players (six is the minimum) and two deep reserves. Our two sophomore starters, Justin Hewitt and Blake Smith, really were huge factors in our State Championship run in '09."

The Wolfpack excelled off the court in 2009 as the NJCAA's No. 2 Academic Team of the Year boasting a team GPA of 3.54.

The upcoming 2010 season looks very promising with the return of the top four sophomores. Anchoring the Wolfpack are Columbians Nico Osorio and Guillermo Chaves, the Wolfpack's No. 1 and No. 2 players, along with Reed Rodgers (No. 3) and Reilly Miller (No. 4).

Guillermo Chaves will team with Nico Osorio, Reilly Miller and Reed Rodgers in 2010.

"I want to win an individual state title and help my team repeat as State Champs, and then qualify for the NJCAA National Tournament next spring," said Osorio.

"I would like to add a singles title next spring and repeat as a doubles State Champ, in addition to helping my team make that trip to Nationals," said Chaves. "I'm also going to work hard at maintaining my 4.0 GPA, qualifying for Distinguished Academic All-American at the end of the spring!"

According to McIntyre, Rodgers and Miller made tremendous progress as players last spring. Both were doubles players in high school, but their singles games came up several levels. Unlike high school tennis, collegiate players need both singles and doubles skills.

McIntyre is very optomistic about 2010. "With the top four players returning, if we pick up around four more good athletes whom we can mold into tennis players by next April, we should be able to make another run at a State Championship!

GOLF

The golf team captured their first ever Mississippi Association of Community and Junior College's (MACJC) Division II State Championship in 2009 at Kirkwood National Golf Club in Holly Springs. The Wolfpack finished 11 shots ahead of second place Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College. This was only Co-Lin's fourth year to compete in Division II.

Freshman Derin Petite of Gonzales, La. shot a two-day total of 76-83 – 159 to finish the tournament in second place. Finishing in sixth place were Chad Vivien of Purvis and Donnie McFarland of McCall Creek. Rounding out the team were Clay Price of Hazlehurst (89-82 – 171) followed by Ryan Ratcliff of Meadville (88-87 – 175).

Sophomore Donnie McFarland will help anchor the Wolfpack in 2010.

The Wolfpack finished third in the NJCAA Region 23 Championship held at the Mississippi State University Golf Course. Ratcliff, a sophomore, finished fifth in the tournament qualifying for the NJCAA National Championship at Goose Pond Colony Golf Course in Scottsboro, AL. Ratcliff, who was named to the NJCAA All-Region 23 and MACJC First Team All-State, finished 53rd in the National Touranment.

Co-Lin head coach Ronny Ross was named MACJC Coach of the Year.

The Wolfpack should be solid with six players returning in 2010. Sophomores include Derin Petite, Clay Price, Jake Smith, Colby Bass, Donnie McFarland, and Bradley Boykin.

Incoming freshmen include Josh Nettles, Bennett Ruschewski, Berry Givens, and Ben Goff.

Ross begins his 10th year as Co-Lin's head coach. he also serves as the director of golf operations at Wolf Hollow Golf Club.

Assisting Ross for his fourth year is Craig Hennington. He also serves the college as a mathematics instructor. Hennington, a Co-Lin graduate, was a member of the Wolfpack golf team.

CO-LIN

2009 hall of fame

Leon Boone

Leon Boone of Florence is being honored for his achievements in football and track. He is a 1957 Co-Lin graduate and was Junior College All-State Honorable Mention in 1956. Boone, who was nicknamed "Nuke," lettered in football as a halfback and in track where he ran the low hurdles at Co-Lin. He is a graduate of Hazlehurst High School. After Co-Lin, Boone played football and graduated from Louisiana College.

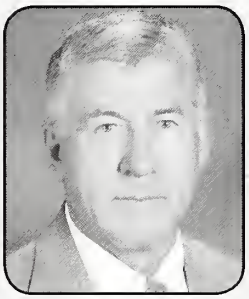
His coaching career included Raleigh, Pelahatchie, and Florence high schools and Hanging Moss High School. He was named coach of the year in 1968, 1969, and 1970. He is married to the former Mary Elizabeth Spell of Wesson. They have three children, six grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

Jerry Globetti

Jerry Globetti is being inducted for his achievements in football while at Co-Lin. He lettered in football in 1955 and 1956 and was captain of the football team for the 1956-57 season. Globetti is also being inducted into the Louisiana College Sports Hall of Fame this year for his achievements in athletics at that college after Co-Lin.

He is professor emeritus of sociology and former director of the Center for Alcohol and Drug Education at the University of Alabama. He retired as chair of the Department of Sociology at the University of Alabama in 1994.

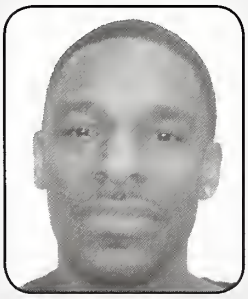
Globetti and his wife, Elaine Cockrell Globetti, live in Tuscaloosa, Ala., and they have two children and three grandchildren.



Ray Ishee

Ray Ishee was a football coach at Co-Lin from 1979 to 1989. He served as athletic director and head coach in 1985 through 1989. He was dean of students from 1990 to 2001. In five seasons as head football coach, Ishee compiled a 37-17-1 record and took the Wolves to the state playoffs four times bringing the football program to national prominence. The team was ranked in the top ten in the nation four of the five years he was head football coach. The 1985 state championship was the first since 1938. The team defeated nationally ranked Nassau County (NY) in the East Bowl that year.

A graduate of Jones Junior College, Ishee also played football at Delta State University where he received his master's degree. Ishee coached at Delta State University, Greenwood High School, and Cleveland High School prior to coming to Co-Lin. He is a member of the National Junior Colleges Football Coaches Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Rhonda, live in Wesson and have two children and two grandchildren.



Daron Jenkins

Daron Jenkins is a 1988 Co-Lin graduate where he was an outstanding basketball player. He led the Wolves to a 36 – 2 record in a year when Co-Lin was ranked number five in the nation. Jenkins was rated number one of the top five junior college players in the nation that year. He also led the National Junior College Tournament in scoring, rebounds, and dunks.

After Co-Lin, Jenkins played for the University of Southern Mississippi where he was the all-time shot blocker in the school's history and still holds the single season and game shot blocker record. He was a free agent in 1991 and 1992 and played for the USA team in the Middle East in 1993 and was voted most valuable player out of eight countries in the Ramadan Classic Tournament. Jenkins also played in the European and Canadian Basketball League and with the Harlem Globetrotters. While with the Harlem Globetrotters, he set the eleven feet, seven inches Guinness Book World Record for dunks.

Jenkins is a graduate of Mendenhall High School and lives in Braxton. He has two children.
